MISCELLANEOUS QUESTIONS/POINTS

- The November minutes were approved by Michele Sotille and seconded by Suzanne Serini
- Suggestion made to make numbers more visible for BINGO night for children who may take longer to see all the numbers who are called out.

- Rain Date for Carnival is the Thursday before Memorial Day, incase May 17 gets rained out.
- Suzanne Serini – yearbooks to be ordered directly from TreeRing this year. All children need to be added to Tree Ring so that you get one for each child if you are interested in buying a yearbook per child. Pictures need to be uploaded ASAP. Pages through Halloween are already completed. Don't add captions to pictures, it makes it difficult to use the pictures for the yearbook.
- Cherie Bavosa- recycling bins to be set up for ink cartridges, markers, dry erase, glue sticks and sneakers. Money comes back to the school for these donations.
- Gabrielle Pettinato – Please send in box tops, a little behind from box tops. Also register your ShopRite and Stop and Shop to get money back to the school. Classes compete for a trophy per month.
- Rebecca Kaplan - Chess update – forms coming home by today or tomorrow.
- Danielle Imprevuto – mailed in, not present for meeting

Giving Tree

Thank you to the whole village school family for participating and donating over 400 gifts to the Monmouth county family and child services. A special thank you to christine Bavaro and Jen Paulino for helping those 3 days.

Holiday shop

Thank you to all our parent volunteers and the executive board for spending hours to help make this week a great success. The children of Village always have fun shopping for their loved ones. Special thanks to Christianne Nakhla, Jamie Placca and Jen Paulino for helping organize the week before. And to Marisa who was my co-chair. You will do great next year.

CLOSING

- The PSA monthly gift was won by Lynette Gaiso.
- A motion to adjourn was made by Nikki Zizzo and seconded by Suzanne Serini.
- The meeting was adjourned at 10:05am
